Apr 7, 2017 Hevazi: I uninstalled using the uninstall option in the control panel and tried to install again. Malwarebytes antivirus detected and removed, otherwise it was a clean uninstall I believe. I can't find the software anywhere in the list of programs running now. I think I got to the point in this link where I can see the drivers for the webcam before the black screen- no DVD player and no buttons to let me install anything else happen.Nicki Minaj isn't one to mess with words or audiences. Who could forget her XXXTentacion diss where she hit the streets with a full train, made up to look like she was sexually abused? I'm sure that didn't go over too well with fans. She hasn't gotten out of drama, yet her upcoming project is on the way. Minaj is set to release her first music video for her new single "No Frauds" on July 5. Titled "Conceited," the pop artist will be taping in Cleveland as part of a two-day project, including a surprise meet and greet with fans. Fans will then be able to have their photo taken with the artist at a photoshoot. This is the first time a star will debut in their own video in the streaming era. Minaj has been teasing the project for a bit, releasing her upcoming single a few days ago and doing a video shoot and photoshoot, as well as putting up a teaser. She also went on her Rebel Heart Tour before her debut album. From all of these previews, she has kept a soft and quiet tone about her debut. She hasn't gone full on egomaniac, which if you remember, wasn't really her style. "Conceited" will be the first full track she'll release, so we'll see how this turns out. It looks like Minaj has all the ideas for the direction her new project will take her. The costume, the imagery, the mood, and of course the content. You can be sure that she will set her new song up for success, and she won't get out of this one.
