Cheat Sheet: The Conjuring 2 (2016) Franchise For a franchise that only released one movie back in 2013, The Conjuring 2 has managed to hit number one worldwide in 14 countries and number two in the US. The Conjuring 2 is the sequel to 2013's hit horror film, The Conjuring. Interesting facts The Enfield Horror - In the United Kingdom, The Enfield Case; in Australia The Conjuring 2, and The Conjuring 2; and in the United States, The Conjuring 2. Movie plot The film follows the same storyline as the first film, but moves the location to the United Kingdom, where a family must grapple with a strange case of paranormal activity that is connected to their childhood home. The supernatural case When a mother and her two young children move into an old, secluded farmhouse, they find themselves living not just in a new house but in a new world - literally. Moments after the children's first night in the house, strange sounds and unexplained lights start occurring all over the house and the children. After a brief period of peace, the children's family friends suffer from mysterious and repeated attacks, with their bodies and possessions covered in scratches and their bodies contorted into animal-like shapes. The family finally discovers the cause of the paranormal incidents to be a malevolent spirit, which takes the form of an ancient doll that begins to terrorize them. Mid-movie conspiracy As the family is trying to discover the source of their problems, it becomes clear that the family's attempts to get rid of the entity are futile. After the family reluctantly follows the advice of a medium, they begin to believe that it could be a curse that is being passed on. Back into the supernatural zone As soon as it's safe, they make a formal complaint to their local police, who send them a member of their department to stay with the family as a sort of bodyguard. The members of the police department tell the family that their experiences are real, and a series of investigations begins. There is someone else involved in the events as well, as the spirit seems to be aware of its surroundings. Opening sequence The opening sequence is set in the same house and is similar to the first movie. The story begins when the father, a priest, visits the location to conduct a blessing. During this time, the family's troubles begin, and the family
