

Kinjang Falls (Lata Kinjang) is an impressive waterfall that can be seen from the North-South Highway in Tapah District. There are many signs that lead ... to the water! The waterfall is located at an altitude of 1,032 meters above sea level, while the area itself is at an altitude of 1,619 meters. To get to the waterfall you have to go down the highway, turn left and go deep into the mountains on a small road.

At the end of the road you will see a sign "Lata Kijang Falls". Just past the signpost is the turnoff to the first terrace. To get to the second terrace, you will need to hike up the trail through the waterfall to a place called "Ashi".
