I was in a location where I had to be running off charge I had not been able to get battery power for the device, and had to download it from the AOC website. Itâ□□s a hassle, but nothing that couldnâ□□t be avoided in a different time and place. The download was fairly easy once I did it, but there were a few different windows of download. The first one was to the drivers, the second to the source of the program that installed them, and the third was the file that contained the drivers. Most likely they are trying to do everything on that monitor so that if you donâ□□t have that monitor you donâ□□t need to do all that work and install it on the VB. Iâ□□m not seeing a way to send the device off to get fixed, so since itâ□□s for a family member Iâ□□m going to send it off to have it fixed, as long as it is somewhat straightforward. The report comes hours after the Sanders camp released a draft platform titled "A Road to Economic Democracy" which vows to achieve economic reforms, including "breaking up" big Wall Street banks. Alan S. Baron, a visiting professor at the University of Hawaii and chair of the Democratic Party's platform committee, told Politico that the drafting process has been "on a fast track." He said it would probably be released for public viewing July 25, just nine days before the start of the convention. "The hard work of drafting the party's platform is well underway," Baron said, although he added that he does not think the process will be a "shocker" to anyone who has been following the debates in the months leading up to this year's Democratic National Convention. "Despite what the White House and its friends may want to spin," he said, "there is much that is distinctly different from a year ago." What are the policies in the draft platform? The platform is similar to one drafted in 2012, with similar policy proposals such as Medicare for All and free college tuition. But the most attention-grabbing aspect of the draft are the sections calling for the expulsion of all U.S. troops from Afghanistan and Iraq and an end to all U.S. aid to Israel. The draft also calls for the eventual dismantling of the International Criminal Court, which Washington has been a critic of for a long time. However, any platform must still be approved by the Democratic National Convention during its July 25-28 gathering. Other prominent figures on the platform drafting committee include Democratic National Committee chair Tom Perez and U.S. Reps. Cedric Richmond and Marcia Fudge of Ohio, along with former Virginia Sen. James Webb and former Maryland Rep. Kweisi Mfume, according to a list provided to Politico by the committee's chair. What's the history behind 'ending all U.S
