SHOW MORE SHOW LESSQ: jQuery Chosen plugin : how to include a custom dropdown field? Basically I am trying to to implement a jQuery Chosen dropdown that is populated by a custom made element (basically a select and a submit button). This is my select: French Spanish English And this is my submit button : This is the jQuery I wrote : `$('#submit_button').click(function () { var lang = $('#language').val(); var field = 'translation[language]' $.ajax({ type: "POST", url: "{{ route('translate.submit') }}", data: field+"="+lang, success: function() { }, error: function () { alert("Error Translating."); } }) });` Basically the problem is that I am not sure if the field is correctly set. As I cannot retrieve any value in my controller. A: Assuming you have a form with action, it'll be like this, with text input and select French

Elden Ring Crack Patch With Serial Key [32|64bit]

"ELDRING Online" is a brand new fantasy action RPG that begins with the story "RISE, TARNISHED, and be guided by Grace to brandish the power of the Elden Ring and become an Elden Lord in the Lands Between." ■ An Epic Drama Born from a Myth "The Elden Ring" is a multi-layered story that is told in fragments. An epic drama that is set in a multiverse between the game world and actual reality, and includes a mixture of lively characters and colorful sights. ■ The World that Shouldn't Exist Through various magic that caused a massive power cut, mankind was forced to flee into the Lands Between, and people started to survive from various resources and encounters with dangerous creatures and beasts. However, the world is not like it should be, as it is a living battlefield. An unusually huge and dangerous monster that could be a threat to everyone was awakened by the sudden power cut, and is threatening the survival of people. ■ Cut Switches between Multiple Stories Players will get to experience the story along with the different perspectives of the characters as they progress and learn more about their history. As they play, the player can see a different story related to the cut switches of the characters. ■ A Whole New Role for Everyone In the game, using your own character, you can work your way through in order to support the survival of your party and strengthen its power. You can strengthen your equipment, increase your physical strength to become a strong warrior, or even use magic. As you become stronger, you will be able to fully fulfill your role and make an impact in the world. ■ Players Can Discover the True Basis for the Exploration of all the Lands Between The world has natural traps that you can easily fall into or that will become your road to death. All the buildings are likely to be traps, and the places where you think the safest are highly likely to be the most dangerous. What will be your next move? ■ A System that Will Reward Each Action You Take Life is not a matter of luck. You need to fight with the strength that you have acquired through repeated growth, and if you don't, you will die. Our action RPG has a system that will reward you for your actions, and the player will feel its rewards. ■ Characters and Monsters Everybody has a different opinion of people. People are fl bff6bb2d33

What's new:

This is the world of Shiotsuchi, the biggest continent of the Lands Between. A continent divided into extreme climates on the east and west, high-altitude areas in the center, and deep, volcanic areas in the south. Build your city in Shiotsuchi, and acquire monsters to hire, hirebrethren to ally with, and guilds to join. A large variety of quests will be available, and the quest to purify the Land of Hyrule is already underway.

We are at the launch of the launch of the launch event for the launch event! We hope you enjoy your visit to Hyrule!

P.S.: If you've previously purchased "The Legend of Zelda: A Link to the Past Nintendo Entertainment System Version," please log in with the same Nintendo Account that you used back then.

""! In case you didn't know it, the worlds of Link's Awakening and I Have No Mouth, and I Must Scream (ICMIS) use the same engine!""

Someone comes to the temple while Link and the rebels of Coronan go on a quest.

They have legends that tell about a great hero in the past coming in and moving the gates of a dungeon. Then the real hero, who is the real hero, comes and opens a door with a sword, and goes on a journey again. It seems like it's a story about the journey of the hero in his most dangerous dungeons. But someone comes to the temple...

""It's a tragic story,""

Link, who lives in the distant primitive tribe...

Don't be sad, it's only a story.

""The hero, whose face I've forgotten, are walking in front of me."",

""The hero definitely walked, and it seems like he built something.""

Sounds of people were heard coming out from the cave. The same sound was heard.

YAY!!!!!! It seems like I succeeded on the one-man crusade to smash Fryloon's Military Union!!! What a strange feeling! All I had was a sword. But it seemed like a spell was forgotten somewhere in the night where I was imprisoned.

Q: Compass/Grunt Responsive Build A: I'm not a Grunt or Compass developer, but this seems like a decent recipe: A: Here's the Grunt + Compass way! I use Compass to quickly generate minified and compressed css files, and Grunt to compile the files everytime I save. (The last two tasks are optional, but nice to have.) compass: { sass: { dist: { options: {
