and gentlemen, we are proud to present an entire day of “documentary style” reporting as detailed as the scenes that led to the development of the legendary "Doghouse". Back in the spring of 2015 we hosted the first ever “Rolling Model Show” at the Garage. We scouted various locations to see what would work best. It was here, on the day after the summer solstice, that we pulled it together and hosted our one and only “Rolling Model Show”. Unlike any previous event, this was a true “Documentary” style look at the history of the Garage and its relationship with the world of “durability” and “rust”. Let’s start with a look at the new Roadster Tractor. After a long time of accumulating parts, and some minor modifications, we have decided to bring back the Roadster.

Unveiled at the Garage, it was well received and is ready to roll. We now have the front glass set for the new ride, we just need to finish the last details. We are planning to build four versions, two for track, two for street. The first of those is already functional and ready to start tuning. We now have a steady supply of replacement parts, and it is essential to have it ready when parts are needed. We are still looking for “help” from our friends to complete the part list. As always, the question is: “What part is missing from your collection to complete this project?" We are lucky to have a great contact with a few custom car shops in the area. Three of those, and a few close friends, have agreed to help in the form of helping us finish the parts list. Those are the shops in yellow. It's time to get back to some design work. After a few months, a lot of effort and plans laid out, we have reached the fine line where we have a functional prototype, but little if any talent for design. The goal is to transfer that talent to our senior interns, and for those talented to show their new skills. We have also started a
