(AP) — A motorcycleist who waited for a funeral procession for a fallen deputy was arrested Monday on marijuana possession, records show. The 19-year-old man was arrested about 3 p.m. in Monroe on suspicion of possession of less than an ounce of marijuana and failure to appear in court. Tabor City police said Saturday that the motorcycleist was stopped by a patrol vehicle while driving south on the east side of State Road 84 near a parking lot where funeral services were being held for slain Sheriff's Deputy Jack Hancock, of Duplin County. Police said the motorcycleist rode past the deputy's funeral procession and stopped his motorcycle in the middle of a three-lane intersection to block the traffic in the street. Police said no one got out of the motorcycle and no one tried to flee. The driver, identified as Brandon Thomas Lee, was issued a summons to appear in court on Dec. 16. A bystander took video of police frisking the motorcyclist and using what police called a "profiling" device to detect drugs. The person identified himself only as "Frank," and said he was "fascinated" by law enforcement.Washington (CNN) President Donald Trump repeated on Saturday the claim that there was "nothing illegal" in his 2016 presidential campaign's communication with Russians, calling on Congress to investigate. "Let it be a report," Trump said, referring to special counsel Robert Mueller's investigation. "Let congress put the truth to it and they should do it in a bipartisan basis," Trump said during a news conference with the President of Finland, Sauli Niinistö. Mueller's investigation into Trump's campaign is also looking into whether Trump attempted to obstruct the investigation, though it is unclear if any potential obstruction charges will result from that inquiry. At the same time, Trump has taken steps to further limit the ability of investigators to get to his innermost circle. In November, Trump's former campaign chairman Paul Manafort and Trump's former personal attorney Michael Cohen were both convicted
