In this 4-day intermediate 3-level course, you will learn the rudiments of the first movement of the piano sonata, as well as learn to transcribe the whole three movements. Basic strategies and skills are developed, using a fun technique that includes scribble singing, mind reading, and ad libitum. By the end of this course, students are given a take-home piano/chord chart and a well-rounded knowledge of improvisation techniques that will equip them to proceed on to a Bachelor of Music degree in Piano performance. In conjunction with this course, students are also eligible for a degree in Piano Performance at CUNY.
