As I stepped off of the plane – I contemplated the now familiar clouds and thought, “how wonderful to be able to see those clouds everyday – just not in a straight line”. Although it was also a familiar mind-set to myself, I reflected on the beauty of a wide and open sky and a new vision of the mountaintop. An understanding of how far I have come in my life. How far I have yet to go. And how this beautiful, northern mountain top will become my new home. I found solace in a wonderful man, who I affectionately call AWOL, along with a wonderful new vision of the mountain top. He has brought so many new opportunities to me in the past few years. New friends, new opportunities, and most importantly, a truly new way of living. He is a songwriter, and although I don’t believe I have
