Texas Chair (1972) The Haunting of Hill House (2013)A . Api2v5 3.2.7A . AsphaltA . LOCTIVAA . Ever since I began shooting, when I make a new movie I try to imagine I'm at the premiere. Making the film, the editing, the archiving, the presentation. Even though the movie will be watched in 5 years it still means a lot to me. A lot of thought goes into the presentation and I think it's a little bit absurd that we're just in the middle of the internet. It's also really important for me to make sure that everything in the final presentation is in focus. I have to know that if I was to burn a DVD with the movie on there or put it on an USB stick it would look good. The first time I watched the movie online I was really excited, because it was a major change. Since then I've watched more and more movies on the internet and so now it's much more normal. I like watching movies on the internet. I like being able to watch movies whenever, wherever, as long as I have an internet connection.
