With today's special performance by a female cast, the actors showed how well they followed the basic rules of the sport. Cuba Class, in Cuba, where the film will be released on August 7. It contains more than 20 minutes of Cuban music. Writer and director Jorge Luis Aldecoa had the idea of making an original picture on the topic of ancient Cuba, its music, with an important role to play in its transition to the big time. Director Jorge Luis Aldecoa was chosen to script the film, which has been co-produced by the Ministry of Culture of the National People's Coalition and by FEDECIMIENTO - the Cuban national film Institute. The production is a key part of a series of films in which the Cuban national film Institute is working to attract people's curiosity and to create an artistic entity, with the aim of succeeding in the artistic sphere and participating in the economic, social and cultural life of the country.
