interface BootstrapInterceptor { / * @param context * @return */ void onInit(BootstrapContext context); } In a recent blog post, Katie Furlong shared her favorite #AprilMingle memories and challenges, and while she started the month with a bang, the fireworks are long gone. “I don’t know about you, but these past few weeks have literally been so full of blissful bliss. I’ve spent countless hours with clients, to promote my new book and hopefully start writing more... I had a huge milestone birthday... my mom came to visit and we ate way too much spaghetti and meatballs and went to Universal Studios as a family... It’s been a blissful month.” Speaking of laughter, Katie admits she was laughing so hard when she said this: “You know what else is a huge challenge? Shooting the cover of my new book! I’ve never done anything like this. I’ve shot a few photos before, but never a cover. 💎 c6a93da74d
